

Pembroke Capital Management appoints Financial Analyst

March 14, 2018

Pembroke Capital Management (Pembroke), a commercial real estate investment manager that provides financing throughout the capital structure, has appointed Joseph "JT" Esposito as an analyst with the firm's Asset Management team.

In this capacity, Esposito will be responsible for fund and asset analyses related to Pembroke's various real estate debt funds. He will be based in Pembroke's New York City office.

"We are very pleased that JT has joined our team," says Stuart Boesky, CEO of Pembroke. "And we are excited about the future contributions he will make to Pembroke through the delivery of detailed analysis and reporting that will guide our potential real estate investment decisions and grow our lending platform."

Prior to joining Pembroke, Esposito served as a Senior Associate for two years with Grant Thornton, where he was responsible for the market analysis of complex assets and corporate entities as well as constructing portfolio valuations across a range of industries. Earlier in his career, he served with LPL Financial where he created financial models to assist senior advisors in strategies and investment decisions. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from Fordham University's Gabelli School of Business.
